ABBNEY DEATH MYSTERY

Body found at medieval monastery site

By Matthew Stanton

barking@yellowad.co.uk

POLICE are investigating the unexplained death of a forklift driver who was found dead at a former royal monastery site.

Metropolitan Police are appealing for help to trace the last moments of Jack Taylor, of Hogarth Road, Dagenham, who was discovered at Barking Abbey ruins, off Abbey Road, Barking.

The 25-year-old, a night duty forklift operator at a warehouse, had been out with friends on the evening of Saturday, September 12.

Police found his body on Monday, September 14, at around 1.30pm.

A post-mortem examination at Queen's Hospital mortuary, Romford, was inconclusive and further tests are needed.

Sgt Matthew Laffan, from Barking and Dagenham police, said: "We are not sure how long Jack had been at the abbey ruins but clearly there is a period of time unaccounted for."

"We are trying to piece together his last movements and the man captured on CCTV may well be the last person to talk to Jack. This makes him a key witness and we need to speak to him urgently."

"If you recognise him, please contact us so Jack's family can understand what happened to him."

Officers said Jack returned home but went back out again in the early hours of Sunday, September 13, having called a taxi.

CCTV showed him meeting a man in Station Parade near Barking railway station between 2am and 3am.

They walked off together in the direction of the abbey.

The man is described as white and 6ft to 6ft 2ins with a distinctive walk.

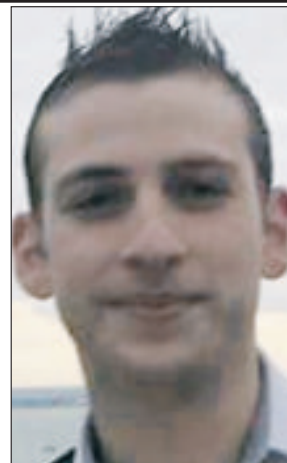

Barking Abbey is a former royal monastery and has been described as "one of the most important nunneries in the country".

Established in the 7th century, from the late 10th century the abbey followed the Rule of St Benedict.

The abbey had a large endowment and sizable income but suffered severely after 1377, when the River Thames flooded around 720 acres of the abbey's land, which was unable to be reclaimed.

It continued to operate for almost 900 years until its closure in 1539.

Anyone with information is asked to call police on 101 quoting Operation Merckx or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

COMPETITION

Win family tickets to Moscow State Circus

To mark the return of the Moscow State Circus we are offering readers a fantastic 2-for-1 deal – as well as giving away 10 family tickets.

Billed as the greatest and most famous circus on earth it will treat audiences at The Quadrant, The O2, London, to 21 performances from October 22 to November 1.

Based on the Russian folklore story Cvetik-Semicvetik – the "flower with seven colours" where each petal represents a wish – Wizard Wack and his sidekick, Natalia Mezentceva, enter an enchanted garden where dreams come true and magnificent feats of human achievement take place.

The circus's loveable buffoons guide audiences through this tantalising tale, granting wishes to the beautiful Kushka Veslovskaya who plays Zhenya, while surrounded by flying, back-flipping, juggling, wire-walking and roller-skating performers.

The show features the award-winning Ruban 13 people springboard troupe, Stynka on the horizontal bouncing Russian bar, Veslovskiy roller-skating revolutions, ballerina Eliza Khachutryan on the high wire, Trio Atlas on the floating globes, wirewalker Olga Rozhkovskaya and daredevil aerial diva Tatiana Ozhiganova.

For more information and tickets call 0203 375

3970 or visit www.moscowstatecircus.com.

To win one of 10 family tickets, worth up to £156 each, just answer the following question.

Q: How many colours does the flower in the Russian folklore story of Cvetik-Semicvetik have?

A: Five

B: Six
C: Seven

To enter the competition telephone your answer – A, B or C – to (0901 307 0205) with your name, address, telephone number and email. Alternatively text Yamoscow (space) followed by A, B or C, and your name, full address and email to 63333. Calls cost 50p per call plus your phone company's access charge. Calls from mobiles will cost considerably more. Texts cost 50p plus your standard network rates. If you do not wish to receive details on any other products or services, text EXIT at the end of your message. Lines close on Monday, October 19. Entries received after the closing date will not be counted but may still be charged. Service Provider: JMedia UK Limited, SW4 7BX. Tel: 020 7720 7130.

T&Cs: Family tickets are valid for four people, any combination, up to the value of £156. Winners will receive the best seating available on the day they choose to go.

● If you are not lucky enough to win then make the most of our 2-for-1 voucher, valid for adult tickets only. Just go to www.yellowadvertiser.co.uk.

VISION: Vanessa Salter of Specsavers with the 500 pairs of glasses

Opticians help transform lives in Africa with your old and unwanted glasses

AN OPTICIANS is sending more than 500 pairs of glasses to people in Zambia.

Specsavers Dagenham, inside The Mall, in Heathway, has been asking people to donate their old and unused glasses to Vision Aid Overseas.

The charity works in Africa to transform access to eye care services and is part of the Vision 2020 initiative to eliminate avoidable blindness by 2020.

Store director Gurjit Singh Sehmi said: "We're so grateful for the generosity of Dagenham residents. We're keen to keep up this drive by encouraging more people to donate.

"It's important that we provide opportunities for those who don't have access to good quality eye care services."

The shop is looking to hit a target of 500 by the end of March 2016.

Since 2003, Specsavers stores have collected and recycled more than 250,000 glasses for the charity, and raised more than £550,000.

Grab a sponge for charity

A FUNDRAISER set up by Barking and Dagenham's first young mayor, Angelica Olawepo, is to raise money for her chosen charity YoungMinds, which improves the emotional wellbeing and mental health of young people.

The event is on Saturday, from 10am and 4pm, in the Barking Learning Centre.

Other activities include a magic show, bouncy castle, arts and crafts, face-painting, henna tattooing, a jazz band and community performances.

Councillor Darren Rodwell, leader of Barking and Dagenham Council, said: "Anyone who knows me knows I'll do pretty much anything for charity.

"So when I was asked to support this event and help raise money of course I had to say yes, although I'm hoping not everyone will have a good aim."

A warm-up event for the sponge throwing game will take place in the Town Square on Friday, October 16, between 10am and noon.

Council staff and the deputy leader, Cllr Dominic Twomey, have agreed to take part.

Pupils learn of Auschwitz horror

TRAUMATIC FINDS: discarded shoes, pupils listen to a guide, 'Work Makes You Free' the sign over the gate and the railway below where victims arrived

barking@yellowad.co.uk

PUPILS from across east London have experienced the horrors of Auschwitz.

The Holocaust Educational Trust invited seven schools from Barking and Dagenham, Redbridge and Waltham Forest on a tour of the former Nazi concentration camp in Poland.

Schools taking part included All Saints and Jo Richardson schools in Dagenham, King Solomon and Valentines schools in Ilford, and Chingford Foundation and Heathcote Schools in Chingford and Highams Park School.

More than 200 students took part in the "lessons from Auschwitz project" trip on Wednesday, October 7.

Young people heard from a survivor of the camp and visited Oswiecim, the location of the camp and the town where the local Jewish community lived prior to the start of the Second World War.

Groups were also shown several barracks at the Auschwitz I site. They witnessed registration documents of inmates, piles of hair, shoes, clothes and other items seized from the prisoners as they entered the camps.

Participants were then taken the short distance to Birkenau, where the vast majority of victims were murdered, to see remnants of barracks, crematoria and gas.

The tours finished with readings, a moment of reflection and the lighting of memorial candles.

Tributes paid to pilots in crash

By Matthew Stanton

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

TRIBUTES have been paid to two men who died in a light aircraft crash in Chigwell.

Essex Police named them as Captain Robert Bull, 40, from Hornchurch, and First Officer Francis Simmonds, 46, from Luton.

The Beechcraft King Air 200 had just taken off from nearby Stapleford Airfield when it crashed in a field just off Gravel Lane on Saturday, October 3. It was heading for Brize Norton in Oxfordshire.

Mr Bull was described as a happy, fun-loving man who was devoted to his daughter.

His family said: "He always put a smile on everyone's face and enjoyed sharing a good joke."

"Rob would always go out of his way to help people and nothing was too much trouble for him."

"He had been a pilot since 2003 and it was what he had always wanted to do."

"As an experienced pilot he worked hard to constantly improve his skills and had recently been awarded a captaincy. He was the glue that held everyone together and his family and friends are devastated by our loss."

The family of Mr Simmonds described him as a devoted husband and father, leaving behind wife of 11 years, Laura, and a seven-year-old son.

They said: "Becoming a pilot was Francis' boyhood dream and he loved every day of his job."

"His death leaves a gaping hole in our hearts and lives."

"We would ask for privacy whilst we come to terms with our loss."

Essex Police is continuing to assist the Air Accidents Investigation Board.

Crimewatch bid for Jane's body

DETECTIVES investigating the death of a mother over 20 years ago have appealed for witnesses on BBC's Crimewatch in an attempt to find her body.

Metropolitan Police are hoping the re-enactment of the killing of Jane Harrison of Poet's Road, Islington, back on June 15, 1995, will help police find her remains.

Jane went missing aged 32 and her former boyfriend, Kevin Doherty, of Cherry Tree Rise, Buckhurst Hill, was convicted of her manslaughter in 2013 and sentenced to 12 years' imprisonment.

Despite pleas from Jane's family, Doherty, who is now 60, has never revealed where he concealed her body.

On Monday's programme, the Met announced that a reward of up to £10,000 will be available to anyone who provides information which leads to the location or identification of Jane's remains.

Detective Constable Bev McInerney, of the Met's Homicide and Major Crime Command, said: "Jane was a much-loved mother, sister and daughter, who went missing 20 years ago this year.

"Tragically her youngest son was a baby when Jane disappeared, and he has no recollection of his mother. I would like to take this opportunity to appeal to anyone who knows ly member or a friend."

Jane was last seen whilst out shopping with Doherty at Wood Green Shopping Centre in north London.

Doherty told detectives that he later dropped the mother-of-two off near her mother's house in Highbury.

However, officers believe that he killed her and took her body to one of the many lock up garages he had access to, before reporting her missing the following day.

In order to keep up the pretence that Jane was alive, Doherty made several calls to Jane's landline telephone from his mobile phone, in the presence of others, pretending the calls were from Jane.

At the time of her death, the couple had been together for three years and had a young son together.

Doherty was also married and had three children by his wife, whilst Jane had another son, then aged 14, from a previous relationship.

Anyone with any information is asked to call the Crimewatch incident room on 0500 600 600 or Metropolitan Police Service detectives directly on 020 8345 3985.

Alternatively, call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

A CELEBRITY couple have helped raise £89,000 for a hospice in Woodford Green.

Newly weds, presenter Mark Wright and soap star Michelle Keegan, took part in Haven House Children's Hospice's annual autumn ball last week.

The black tie event was held at the exclusive

Grosvenor House Hotel in Park Lane.

Mike Palfreman, chief executive of Haven House, said: "This year's ball was even bigger than last year and we're delighted to have raised such a fantastic amount."

"Everyone in the room was there to have a good time, but most importantly to support local life-limited children and their families."

Stars who attended included patron and businessman Barry Hearn, his son Eddie Hearn, television personality Michelle Heaton, Mitch Winehouse, Janis Winehouse and model Casey Bachelor.

I Walk the Line

Canvey's hidden coast

More than 20 years ago, developer Peter de Savary applied to build a £300m town on the western half of Canvey. Locals objected and the scheme was scrapped. The result is a industrialised island of salt marsh and a derelict oil-storage plateau.

Like most of Essex, it's not difficult to find the gaps in the urban fence.

The western seawall at Northwick Farm is one of the most remote sections of the Thames shoreline. That's partly because there's no direct access between Northwick Road and the seawall, even though they are less than 1,000 metres apart.

The only way here is a five-mile hike from Benfleet station.

Less than 10 minutes out of Ferry Road, cormorants and goldfinches fly and feed across mud flats, thistles and meadow grass.

Dutch engineers take the credit for defending this segment of the island from flooding back in the 17th century. To get a sense of what they were up against, walk the creeks three hours before high water, and experience the speed and power of the tide.

The Dutch were so revered they were awarded a third of the land they protected (known as the Third Acre Lands). The coast footpath follows the newer, higher seawall, but the original Dutch-built mounds can still be seen along much of the route.

Our Walk 3 leaves the Hole Haven Creek just before the River Thames proper, and doubles back inland.

It re-joins the seawall via the bird reserve off Canvey Road, at the roundabout.

The RSPB has introduced hard paths, timber hides and signposts. I'd rather they hadn't bothered.

But then again, long may they reign as protectors of this land from that most brutal tide: development.

Seat's city cutie you'll want to cuddle

By Peter Keenan

THE Mii is many things but it is unquestionably the best city car ever to sport the Seat badge.

Along with sister models, the Skoda Citigo and VW up! it has raised the bar for models in this market.

Seat has plenty of previous when it comes to making value for money small motors with a touch of Latin design flair about them, and it puts this experience to good use with the Mii – which is available in three and five-door versions.

The exterior features a distinctive front end – inspired by larger siblings Ibiza and Leon – with trademark Seat grille and stylish large headlights while the rear gets a neat set of tail lights. There are also 14-inch alloy wheels with titanium finish.

It's a car you want to cuddle and this feel-good factor is carried over when you get behind the wheel.

Power is provided by a fuel efficient 1.0-litre three cylinder engine – offering outputs of either 60ps or 75ps – linked to a slick five-speed manual gearbox.

The former version I tested has a 0-62mph time slightly faster than a sloth, but the official time of 14.4 seconds does no justice to how nippy the Mii feels around town.

It takes on the urban jungle with a combination of dexterous handling and sharp steering that makes it a delight to drive. It's no slouch on the motorway either and little in the way of wind and road noise makes it into the cabin.

SMALL BUT SPACIOUS:
SEAT Mii I-TECH 1.0 60PS

Comfort is assured by a soft suspension set-up that treats the humps and hollows littering our roads with disdain. There's enough grip to inspire confidence and although there is a bit of body roll the Mii is reasonably assured.

As well as the entry-level S model the Mii also comes in Ecomotive, SE, I-TEC, Sport, and the fashionista's choice – the Mii by Mango. The I-TEC's main claim to fame is a five-inch touchscreen Seat Portable System – on top of a grey gloss lacquer dashboard insert – which has satellite navigation, Bluetooth phone and audio streaming functions, as well as a Micro SD card slot for music storage.

Numerous ways to personalise your Mii are available through styling packs offered as optional extras. Safety equipment is also plentiful with driver, front passenger, side and curtain airbags all included as well as electronic stability control, hill hold control and a tyre pressure monitoring system.

Despite its compact dimensions – it measures just three-and-a-half metres long – the Mii offers a surprising amount of space.

Four adults can be accommodated in comfort although those in the rear have to make do with windows that don't wind down. There are electric front windows but Seat neglected to fit a passenger window switch for the driver which can be a pain.

However, boot space is excellent with 251 litres of space with all seats in place.

This can be expanded to a mammoth 951 litres load area when those seats are lowered. There is also a double-layered floor allowing you to pick either boosted capacity or a flat loading bay. One bug bear though is the rear shelf which doesn't lift with the tailgate so keeps dropping down as you load or unload the car.

Plenty of cubby holes are dotted around for keys and glasses, while large storage bins in the doors swallow most other items with ease. The Mii is an economical and affordable city car with low running costs that's a little winner for Seat.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

- Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category
All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection
The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies.

However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

CARELESS O'S MADE TO PAY

Football

Crawley Town 3 Leyton Orient 2
By Rowland Lyons at the Checktrade Stadium

SLOPPY defending cost the O's dearly after they gifted the Red Devils their first home win of the season last Saturday.

For the first 25 minutes this contest was embarrassingly one-sided as the O's were good value for the lead gained by Jay Simpson's eighth minute opener.

Orient then failed to put the game to bed, with Ollie Palmer and Bradley Pritchard failing to hit the target with close range headers, before Simpson – with only Callum Preston – chipped an excellent chance wide.

But not for the first time this season the O's were made to pay by switching off at the back when Roarie Deacon was allowed too much time and space to level on 27 minutes.

From the restart a debatable offside decision denied the east Londoners a perfectly good-looking equaliser when Palmer was adjudged offside from Dean Cox's free-kick and Simpson's "goal" should have stood.

The O's afternoon went south 10 minutes later when they failed to clear Mitch Hancox's flag-kick and the full-back confidently returned the loose ball with interest, beating Alex Cisak at his near post.

The shell-shocked visitors were on the rack and Alan Dunne saw red for the second time this season when he appeared to floor a goal-bound Rhys Murphy. Simon Walton then rubbed the O's noses in it by ramming home from the spot, on the stroke of half-time.

Ian Hendon shuffled the pack at the interval and Millwall loan signing, John Marquis, replaced Palmer.

The hard-working striker wasted no time getting stuck into challenges and brought a fine save out of Preston with a glancing header on 59 minutes.

Preston again kept the east Londoners out with a fine tip-over from Sammy Moore's dipping piledriver, but could do nothing about the O's second when Marquis cleverly lost his marker and squared for Simpson to reduce the deficit in the last ten minutes.

Despite a frantic finish that saw Scott Kashket thrown into the fray, the hosts held out to leave home boss, Mark Yates, admitting: "We didn't start particularly well and Orient showed what a decent side they are."

"We had a bit of luck when Simpson put that chance wide – that's probably the first time a mistake hasn't cost us this season."

"A few minutes later we turned the game with some decent goals and we looked a good, attacking threat."

Hendon added: "Defensively we need to switch on. There's a lot of work to be done, which will start this week on the training pitch in preparation for the game against Oxford this Saturday."

"We had to be better for their goals – Alex Cisak was at fault for the second. John Marquis did exactly what we wanted him to do."

"How their keeper saved his header with his feet, is anybody's guess."

"We were the team in the game in the second-half and we should have got something out of the match."

Acting skipper Sean Clohessy said: "We should've been a couple of goals clear, but we didn't take our chances."

"If we're not ruthless in both boxes, then we'll come unstuck. We can't rely totally on the strikers – we also have to defend. We have to get better."

Leyton Orient: Alex Cisak, Sean Clohessy (captain), Alan Dunne (sent-off 45), Connor Essam, Adam Chicksen, Bradley Pritchard, Sammy Moore, Jack Payne (Scott Kashket 83), Dean Cox (Blair Turgott 60), Jay Simpson, Ollie Palmer (John Marquis 46).

Referee: Kevin Wright.
Assistants: Darren Blunden and Oleksandr Solly.

Attendance: 2,575.

Non-league round-up

Urchins and Grays through

By Brian Jeeves

AFC Hornchurch and Grays Athletic are just one game away from a potential FA Cup windfall after away successes in the competition's third qualifying round.

Goals from Tobi Joseph (2), George Purcell and David Knight saw the Urchins ease past hosts Worthing by four goals to one, while Jay Leader and Dumebi Dumaka were on target as Grays won 2-1 at Hanwell Town.

Further success in the fourth qualifying stage will see both clubs through to the first round proper where they will be joined by clubs from Sky Bet Leagues One and Two, including our regional teams Southend United, Colchester United, Leyton Orient and Dagenham and Redbridge.

And Brentwood Town could yet join them after forcing a replay at the Arena following a goalless draw at Hoddesdon Town.

But it was the end of the Wembley trail for some of our other clubs.

Aiden Palmer and Mark Hughes found the net for Chelmsford City but it was all to no avail as Basingstoke Town ran out 4-2 winners, and there was a nine-goal thriller at Rookery Hill where East Thurrock United went down 6-3 to Staines Town.

Elsewhere Aveley put up a decent display against Havant & Waterlooville at Mill Field, but still went down 2-0.

In the National League Braintree Town and Grimsby Town fought out a tense goalless draw in a battle of the in-form teams, a bumper 1,394 turned up at Cressing Road to witness the action.

Billerica Town grabbed a Ryman Premier Division point with an exciting 2-2 draw at Kingstonian.

Top Division One North action saw Barkingside play out a four-goal thriller with Maldon & Tiptree. Michael Spencer and Junior Ogedi-Uzoke put 'Side into a seemingly unassailable 2-0 lead. But the visitors hit back with late strikes from Femi Akinwande and Darren Mills to grab a share of the spoils.

Tilbury picked up maximum points with a 2-0 victory at Haringey Borough. Anthony Martin and Harry Cook with the all-important goals for the Dockers. Thurrock were also in decent form, thrashing AFC Sudbury 5-1 at Ship Lane. Michael Toner, Charlie Stimson, Lewis Spence, Jordan Clark and Joe Christow were all on the score sheet for the rampant home side.

But Great Wakering Rovers slipped to a 2-0 defeat at Bury Town, and it was the same outcome at Oaks Stadium where Redbridge crashed to Wroxham.

Romford were also edged out, going down by the odd goal in three at Thamesmead Town.

Essex Senior League leaders Bowers & Pitsea continued their march towards the title with a 2-0 win at Newham FC. Local rivals Basildon United were also in form, hammering Burnham Ramblers 4-0.

There was a thriller at the Old Spotted Dog where Ilford held hosts Clapton to a 3-3 draw, while there were away successes for Southend Manor, 2-1 at Tower Hamlets, and Sporting Bengal United, 1-0 at Waltham Forest.

Selected action from the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League saw Canning Town win their Division One clash with Galleywood 3-1. In the Essex Premier Cup, Rayleigh Town bagged six without reply at Broomfield and Harold Wood Athletic saw off Benfleet 3-2 in a match staged at Canvey Island's Park Lane ground.

Kate leads Under 15s to victory as season gets under way

Athletics

KATE O'Neill's brilliant individual victory led the Under 15 girls to victory as the Essex Cross Country League season started at One Tree Hill on Saturday.

The Under 15 girls' squad was comfortable winners with all four of the scoring team placing in the top 10 with O'Neill coming home almost a minute clear of the opposition for a great start to the season.

Sophie Rand got the better of Jess Mitchell as the pair came fourth and fifth and Molly Sweetman's 10th place ensured an emphatic victory. Grace Dukelow (19th) and Molly Bath (21st) were not far back and Kate Walker, Ella King, Charlotte Wright and Anna Osborn all finished between 33rd and 37th.

There was also a good turnout from the Under 17/20 women who came third. Sarah Wilson continued her return to fitness in 10th with Bella Woods 13th, Lois Wyatt 15th and Georgia Phillips 20th on her debut completing the scorers with Emily Marshall (23rd) and Emily James (25th) providing back-up.

The Under 13 girls did well in fourth, led home by 10th placed Sydney Foley. Poppy Ellis (14th) and Lily Bath made the top 20 and Annie Grannell in 24th completed the scoring four. Alice Atkins (27th), Jessica James (32nd) and newcomer Rebecca Rourke (37th) also took part. Also fourth were the Under 13 boys with Alex Ford coming fourth for his best run to date with Henry Lay 13th, Ben Naish 24th and Timi McDaniel making the scoring four in 36th on his debut.

Newcomers Jordan Ryan and Casey Fletcher were 37th and 47th with Reece Debenham 51st.

Ben Davis (10th) was the first finisher for the Under 17 boys and Oliver Morter (24th), James Stewart (33rd) and Oliver Bath (37th) were the scoring quartet with Kieran O'Hara also in action in 39th.

The Under 15 boys were one short of a scoring foursome with Jack Rice's strong run earning him fifth, Sam Atkins returning from injury in 26th while new member Alex Friend will have learnt from his first league competition. The Senior Women were also short-handed but Alexa Joel made a confident return to action in fourth after an injury-hit past few years and Mo Lear (71st) and Tracy O'Neill (75th) also flew the club flag.

Another good turnout by the Senior Men saw 15 athletes make the start line with Rob Warner shrugging off a heavy cold to lead home the team with a fine run in 7th place, followed by a strong effort from Paul Grange in 18th for his highest Essex League placing.

Another of the squad suffering from the ill effects of a cold, Steve Rand, was next home in 27th with fellow veteran Matt Bland running well in 37th with Martin Chester 55th and Jason Crispin 59th completing the scoring six.

The next four runners were closely grouped with Simon Hart leading them in 68th, Sam Jackson in 70th, Paul Berrett 75th and Luke Jackson 77th.

The squad was completed by Russ Middleton 103rd, Steve Walker 106th and Tony Collins 122nd, but the team lost Jamie Buckley Stanton and Mathew Braybrook through falls on the wooded section.

League action continues at Hockley on October 31.
